Also Porter, Ale, and Grab Gider sold by the dozen to Tavern keepers and others, at Baltimore prices.

With very many things too tedious to mention. All of which, or any other article in his line, furnished promptly to order at Baltimore prices, adding on the expense of transportation. The reduced rates of carriage, will render the Glarkaburg market a very desirable one to purchasers.

Call and examine his stock before purchasing elsewise, and you will not go away unsatisfied.

GASH is his motto, but the highest prices will be paid for country produce of every kind, in exchange for goods. Remember the new grocery.
